Herr Professor Jackson:

I wish to congratulate you on your appointment to the teaching staff at UCLA School of Medicine and the V. A. Hospital at Sepulveda California.

I read your new book, "The Dector", with great interest. I am sure it is the most important book published in this century. The way you used a day-dream of Niketa Kruschev's to prove that Nelson Rockefeller ordered the attempted assassination of Governor George Wallace makes Sherlock Holmes look like an amateur.

The true purpose of this letter is to inform you that I have followed your instructions regarding the medical records of Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin, which you stole from the files of Dr. [redacted] the world renowned psychiatrist. I can testify that these records show them to be mafia hoods of the vilest kind, and that Sinatra sexually molests little children and then has a sexual orgasm by murdering them. Martin acts as a procurer for Sinatra. I became very nauseated and vomited when I read Dr. [redacted]'s records of these two.

I had Mr. [redacted] of the Internal Revinue Service Xerox many copies of these records and gave the originals to [redacted] to put in the safe at the Van Nuys American Legion CClubhouse, [redacted]. The copies of these medical records I gave or sent to the following people:

[redacted], Richard M. Nixon, John W. Goemans, [redacted]

Chief of Scotland Yard, [redacted], [redacted], Peter Pitchess,

[redacted]
[redacted] Wm. Saxbe, [redacted]
[redacted]

attorneys, so that they continually disqualify themselves. This has been going on ad infinitum.

Please note the letters enclosed which refer to Dr. [redacted]'s threatened killing of Richard Nixon (letter handwritten by Jackson), and the letter purportedly from Gerald Ford at the White House; as well as the one on the IRS letterhead.

Being more concerned than most people whose names are involved, I have been in touch with various government agencies and I find them frustrated in their efforts to do something about this man in the way of reasonable incarceration. It is my opinion that local-level Postal and Police authorities could use some support and investigation from a national level. You will note that almost all of the people named are of national or international prominence.

Several years ago my wife was aware that Dr. Jackson was teaching [redacted] how to make blow guns and blow darts and to dip them in poison. In addition to being a psychiatrist, which includes all the skills of hypnotism, he is also a student of primitive culture and has experimented with various primitive and occult arts. If he crossed the line, at what point would one know? I believe that a blow-dart death would be imperceptible at the time of the event, silent and unnoticeable to the protectors of our visiting dignitaries.

It appears also, that when one casually receives only one letter, it is dismissed for what it is . . . the product of a deranged mind. But few recipients are aware of the extent of the mail campaign, as Sgt. [redacted] of the Los Angeles Police Department and [redacted], Postal Inspector in Van Nuys, can verify.

On October 29, 1974, there was a hearing on Dr. Jackson's violation of probation, at which time his attorneys asked to be dismissed because I understand that Jackson had included them in a letter campaign and also stole 145 of their business cards. At his next hearing, new court-appointed attorneys will be in charge, or Jackson will act as his own attorney.

I truly believe that this man is a danger to society as well as to himself, and his Mother is in conspiracy with him in this campaign. Mrs. Vanover is an expert graphologist.

I do hope that you will consider this matter of potential national significance, rather than just a local "nut". There must be some indictable offense that has not been used to protect society from this man. It would be a shame to have a tragedy occur before the man receives the criminal and mental attention that is obviously needed.

Sincerely yours,

[redacted]

Re: James Jackson, M.D.
Forgery File

Mr. William B. Saxbe
United States Attorney General
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Saxbe:

This letter is being directed to you because Mrs. [REDACTED] and I seem to have become the victims of a vicious letter-writing campaign, which is now beginning to take on some rather frightening aspects.

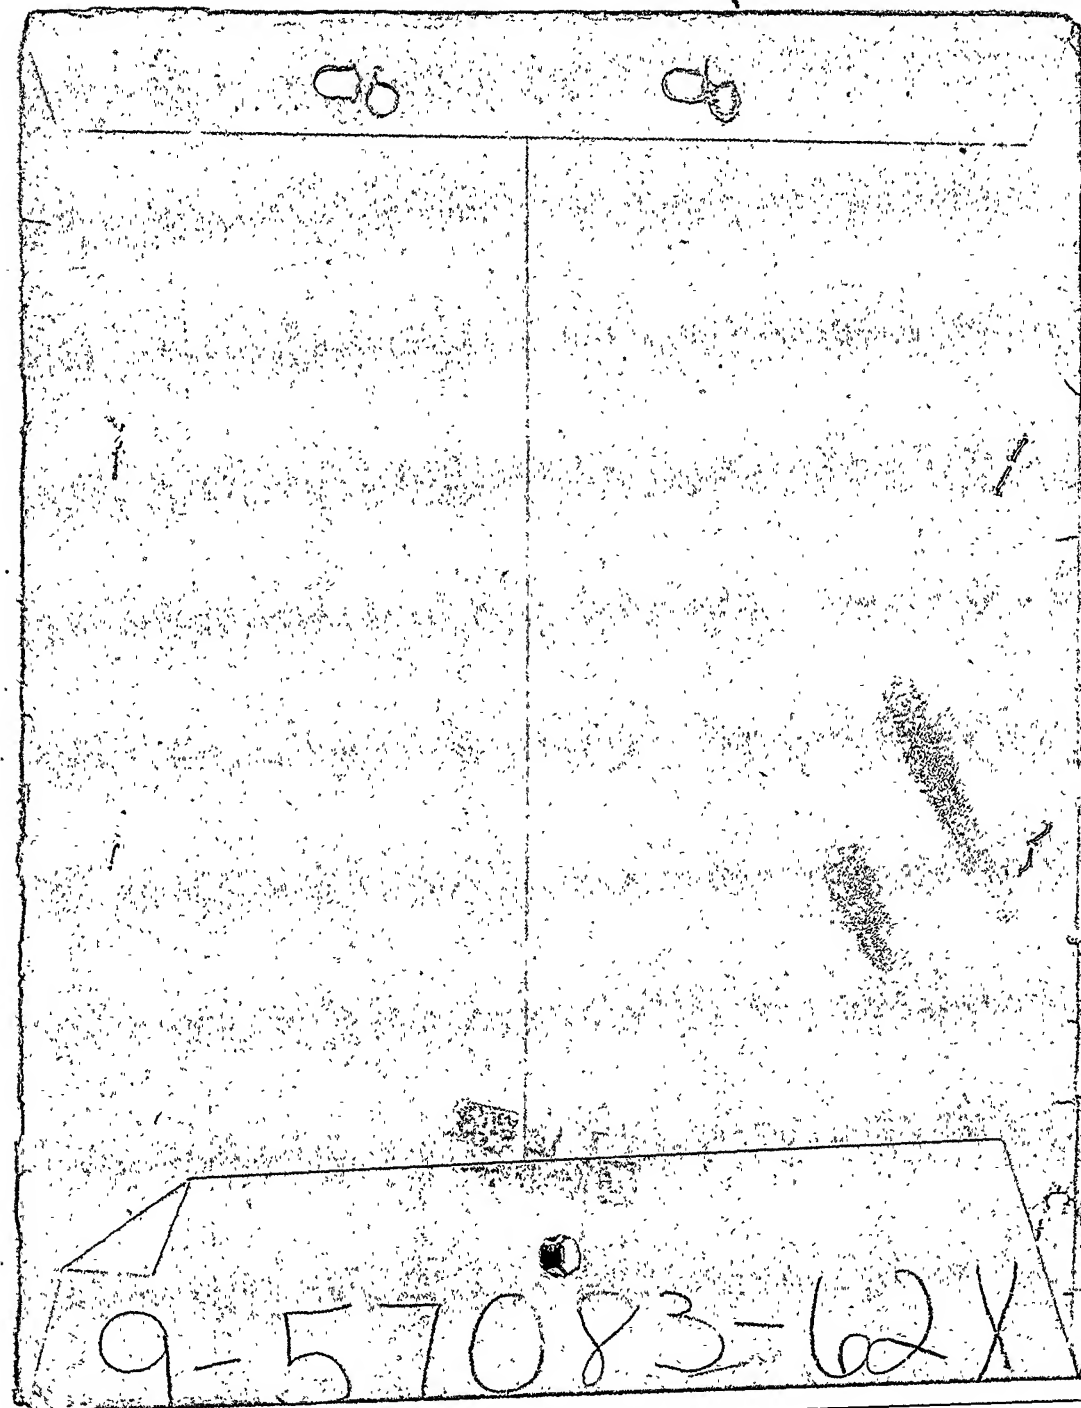

I am enclosing copies of some of the letters being circulated, most of which are sent out, using my wife's name and our home address as the sender.

To fill you in on the background . . . James Jackson, M. D., who originates these letters, and his Mother, Jessie Vanover, are [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to my wife, [REDACTED]. We are concerned, not only because of the obvious threat to us, but to the ominous potential of the actual threats to national and international personages mentioned.

Although Dr. Jackson is a psychiatrist and psychoanalyst, he commenced his career around 1961 and 1962 and apparently has not actively practiced since, though he has retained his narcotics license since that date.

Please bear in mind that this is not a small letter campaign . . . as many as 500 to 1000 of each of his letters have gone out. It is my understanding that Sgt. [REDACTED] of the Los Angeles Police Department, at one time confiscated 600 letters at a postal box and also confiscated a machine which he was using to counterfeit stamps. His letters usually have a 1¢ stamp or a bogus facsimile, a green stamp or a book of the month stamp as postage, and yet, the Post Office delivers these letters, even with insufficient postage.

There is apparently a 1967 California law, which offers unique protection to mental patients and this man has been able to walk in and out of local institutions with only a few days or a week of incarceration. To my knowledge he has never been committed to a criminal institution. Apparently the only offense he has actually been charged with was the petty theft of a doctor's seal and using the doctor's name on letters similar to these. For this offense he was put on probation. Mr. [REDACTED], his probation officer, has stated that he wishes to terminate his probation, but the man is so skillful that he writes the same type of letters to the judge hearing the case, or the court-appointed Apparent violations within FBI jurisdiction included in this material are: (a) the threatening letter listed above as item 13, (b) misuse of the Great Seal of the United States and impersonation of President Ford, both in item 15, and (c) misuse of seal of Department of State in item 3.

It is noted numerous similar letters from the subject have been presented to the U. S. Attorney who has declined prosecution due to subject's mental condition. Other agencies apparently have cases pending against the subject.

Los Angeles present these latest letters to U. S. Attorney. Determine latest prosecutive or commitment action taken against subject. Advise victim of opinion of U. S. Attorney. Submit LHM for dissemination to Department of Justice, Postal Inspectors, U. S. Secret Service and other concerned agencies.

NOTE: Subject is prolific letter writer. Chief Postal Inspector has forwarded series of letters to FBIHQ. This communication forwards these letters to Los Angeles for appropriate action.

Honorable Clarence M. Kelley
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C. 20535

Dear Mr. Kelley:

Enclosed is a letter to Postmaster General E. T. Klassen, and related enclosures, from Mr. [redacted] of [redacted], California. Mr. [redacted] is concerned over receipt of libelous and threatening correspondence, relating to himself and various persons of local and national prominence, from Dr. James O. Jackson, 13137 Hartsook, Sherman Oaks, California. Mr. [redacted]'s objection to Dr. Jackson's activities was also the subject of a November 11, 1974 letter to the Attorney General, copy enclosed. Also enclosed is a copy of this Service's reply to Mr. [redacted].

The file is forwarded as information or for any action you may deem appropriate relative to the March 18, 1974 letter from Dr. Jackson to "Mother" which contains a threat to kill some sixteen people involved in criminal or commitment proceedings against him. Other letters make reference to contacts with local agents of your Bureau.

As further information, Dr. James O. Jackson, a psychiatrist, is a prolific writer of hate mail who has a history of mental problems. An example of his most recent activity, a November 7, 1974 letter on Department of State stationery, ostensibly forwarded by the Honorable Henry A. Kissinger, and mailed in a franked Department of the Navy envelope, is with the file. This latest mailing is being investigated in coordination with the U. S. Secret Service at Los Angeles, California. Since Dr. Jackson was sentenced on March 13, 1974 in state court to Reference is made to memorandum dated December 17, 1974, concerning James Oliver Jackson.

On January 9, 1975, [REDACTED] Sergeant, Criminal Conspiracy Section (CCS), Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD), Los Angeles, California, advised that on January 6, 1975, Judge Irwin J. Nebron, Division 108, Van Nuys, California, ruled that Jackson failed to follow the conditions of probation imposed on December 23, 1974, at a similar hearing in which Jackson was found to have violated probation imposed following his guilty plea to a charge of trespassing. Judge Nebron then sentenced Jackson to spend the next six months in the Los Angeles County Jail.

EXTORTION

In May 1974, Jackson pleaded no contest to a charge of trespassing and was placed on three years probation. Under the terms of probation, Jackson, who has since lost his license to practice psychiatry, was forbidden to distribute defamatory letters, writing about the moral, political, religious or criminal aspects of 15 specified persons and to use a rubber stamp, letter-head or stationery bearing any name other than his own.

When the original probation terms were imposed last May, Municipal Court Judge James E. Satt dismissed the petty theft charge and ruled that the ten counts of misdemeanor criminal libel charges against Jackson would be dismissed if he obeyed the terms of the probation.

Because Jackson violated his probation, the possibility exists that the libel charges may be refiled by the Los Angeles City Attorney.
